TIGER

To one of the sweetest and prettiest girls I know. I know this year is gonna be great. Be sure to write me over the summer. Be sure to write me over the summer. Best of luck in your life now and in the future.

Love always,
Donna (Bunchie)
'68-'69
Sr. '70

To one of the most darling girls I've ever met.
Your sweet smile and kind words will carry you far.
We're the best Jr. class ever,
it is. And you help to make it that Bob likes you. Best of luck always. May
Jrs. 68-69 Love ya,
Pam

To one of the nicest
any best girls I know.
Gene.

To a sweet girl with a good sence of humor.
Ruth

Wills Point High School

Wills Point, Texas

Foreword

The 1967-68 school year has ended, and soon another year will begin. Happy days and disappointing days of '68 are now only memories--memories that will live in every student's heart for a lifetime.

Another year's tears of joy and tears of sadness, another year's maturity, another year's advancement toward a worthwhile goal, and fulfillment of that goal for the Class of '68 is now history.

The annual staff has prepared for you a treasure chest of the highlights of this year in the '68 TIGER. We hope each student will remember a special friend or relive a special day as he turns the pages of the yearbook of the proud Wills Point High School of '68.

Best wishes for a happy,
successful life,

Linda Kinney

And Now Here Is
Our '68 Tiger.

With Greatest Respect and Admiration
We Dedicate the 1968 Tiger to
Mrs. A. J. Riley

One of the most deserving persons of our community is Mrs. A. J. Riley. Her intelligence and wisdom has won for her the love and admiration of students and adults. For forty-one years, Mrs. Riley has given of herself to help students. Not only has she displayed a great ability to teach, but she has shown inventiveness and concern as a class sponsor of 20 Junior-Senior Banquets. She has also helped sponsor White Gift Services, class assemblies and class parties.

Although nothing can equal the esteem we have for you, we now offer as a token of our love for you, Mrs. Riley, the dedication of our 1968 yearbook.

Her admirers saluted Mrs. Riley with a standing ovation when she was recognized at our Junior-Senior Banquet and again in a high school assembly. Many express love and appreciation at a special reception given in honor of Mrs. Riley.

Mrs. Riley has taught in public schools for forty-one years. Her never ceasing work and study has taught many students much.

Secretary - Troy Roberts

The student council is an organization of students elected by the students to represent them and to speak for them in many activities of the school. It knows and makes known to the administration the wishes of the student body. It also directs various student campaigns, conducts drives to improve the school, and finds activities within its ability to perform.

The council is a directing force for the activities of the school.. It is an excellent means of training students in democratic living.

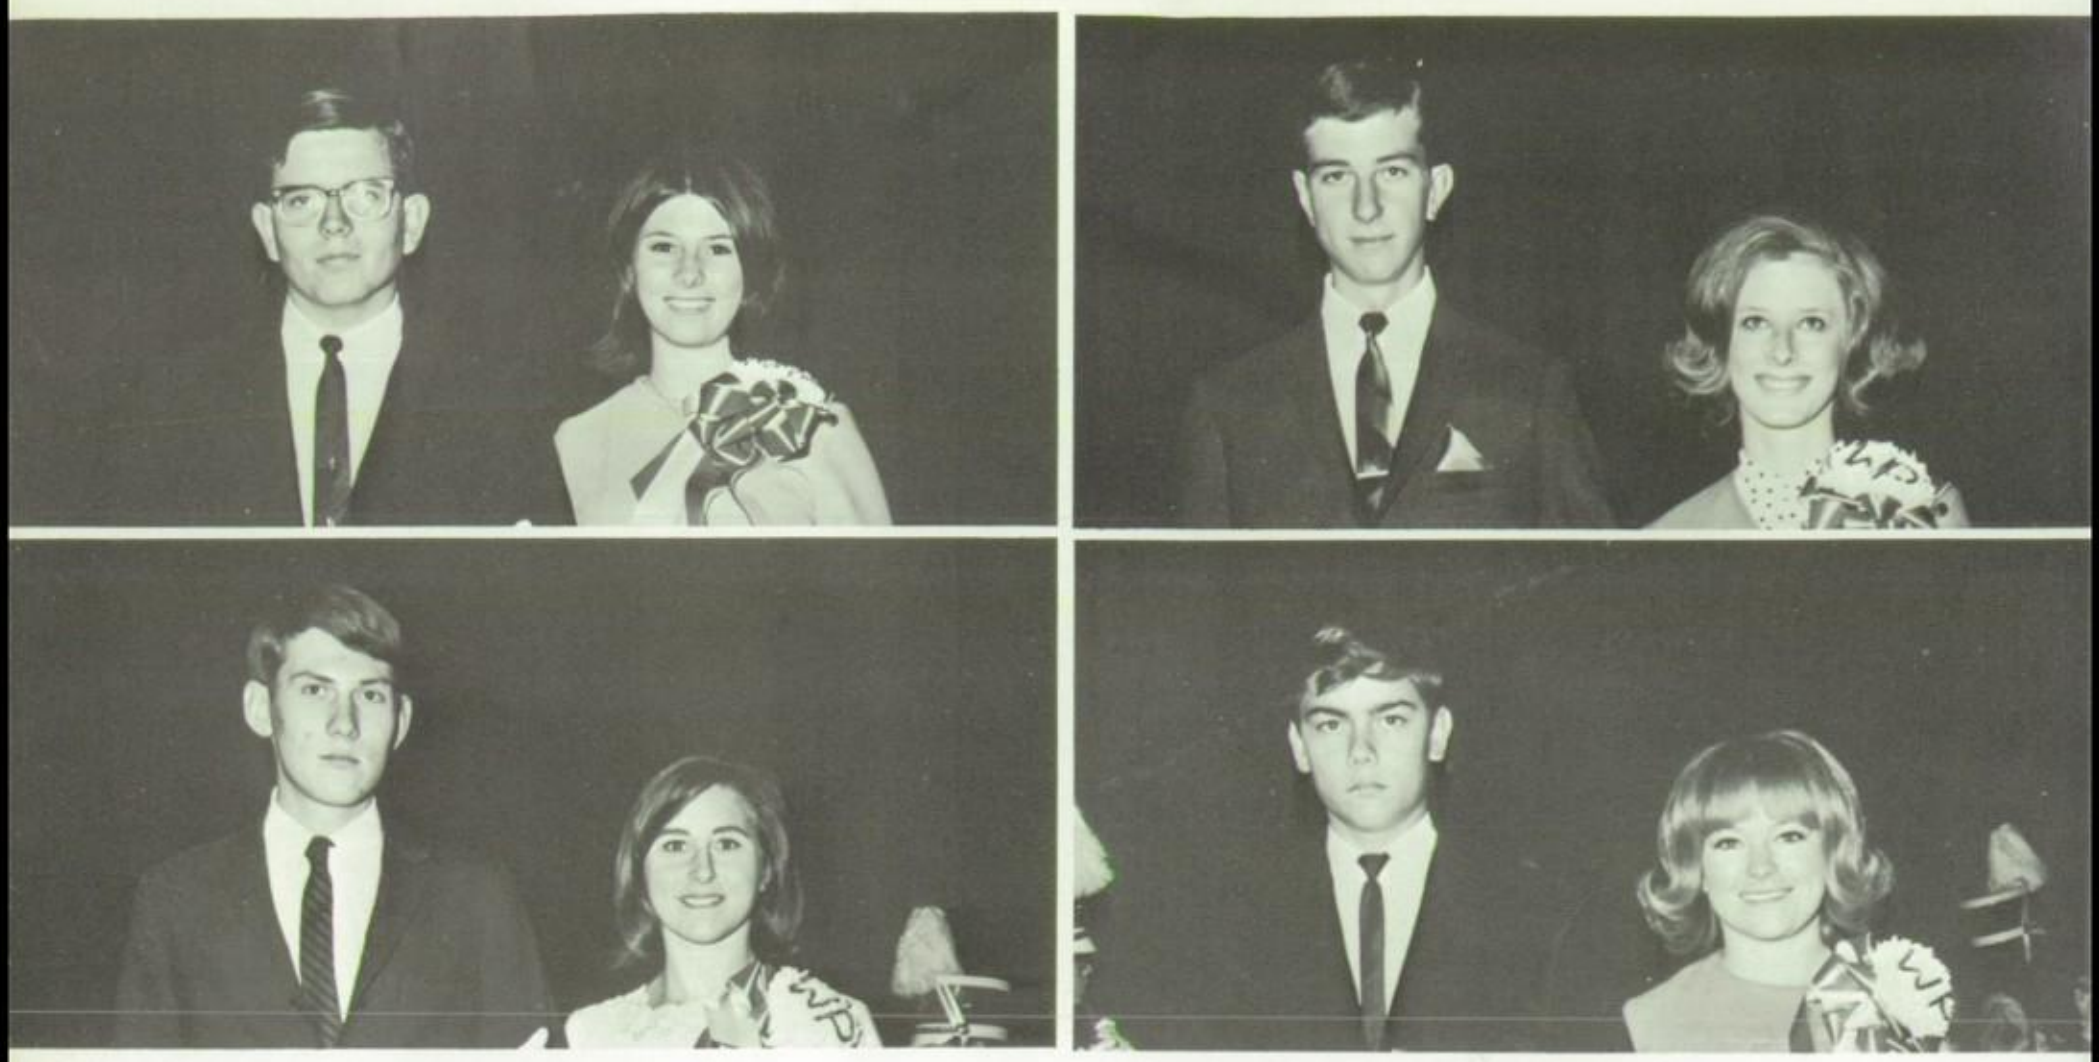
ACTIVITIES

Homecoming 1967



TOP ROW: Michael Allen, Janis Kanaman, James McKnight, Ann Hollandsworth; BOTTOM ROW: Russell Scott, Melissa Hallman, Larry Geddie, Wendy Conn.

Duchesses and Escorts

During football season a weekly ritual for the cheerleaders and interested students is decorating the goal posts.

For the first time, all exes of Wills Point High School were invited to a reception and barbecue on Saturday, October 28, 1967, sponsored by the Alumni Association.

The reception was held at the high school. The exes mingled with former classmates and friends. A barbecue held at the football field later that afternoon climaxed the activities.

Bonfire '67

Cheerleaders lead cheers at the bonfire.

John Deen makes a speech at the bonfire.

Students enjoy the warmth of the fire.

Troy D. Roberts performs his skill.

Because of high wind, the bonfire was postponed from the pre-Homecoming activities to the last football game.

While the rain drizzled down, the cheerleaders cheered, majorettes twirled, the band played, the football boys gave speeches, and the student body led the Tigers to their last victory of the season.

Majorettes perform while the ba band plays.

Pep Rallies

This was the first year for pep rallies in the new gym. From cheers to speeches, with the band playing, the gym rang with excitement as students built up the Tigers' spirit.

Tigers display their spirit at the pep rallies.

Ken Davis: Did Mr. Brown say "A Taste of Honey?"
Don Davis: "I sure hope so!"

Majorettes wait for starting moment.

Mike Goggans: "If I have told Mickey once, I have told him a thousand times. Do not bite your fingernails."

Students enjoy performance by band.

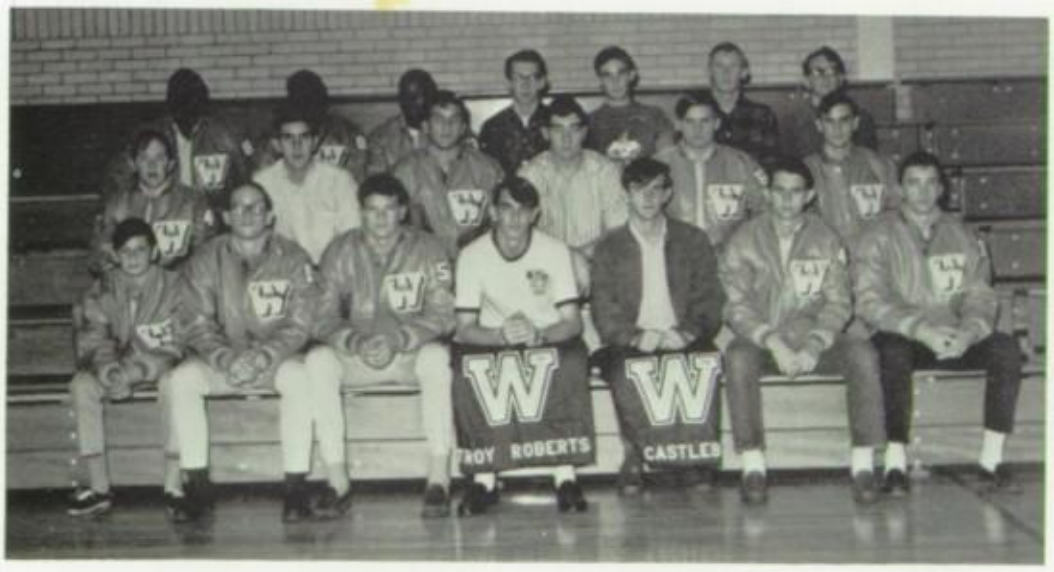
Cheerleaders cheer Tigers with victory signs.

Assemblies

The first assembly was on the first day of school. The cheerleaders presented to the school the ribbons which they had won at cheerleader camp.

These smiling faced students were elected class favorites.

The band seniors receive their sweaters.



High school lettermen pose in their jackets and blankets.

Randy Burch proudly receives his jacket.

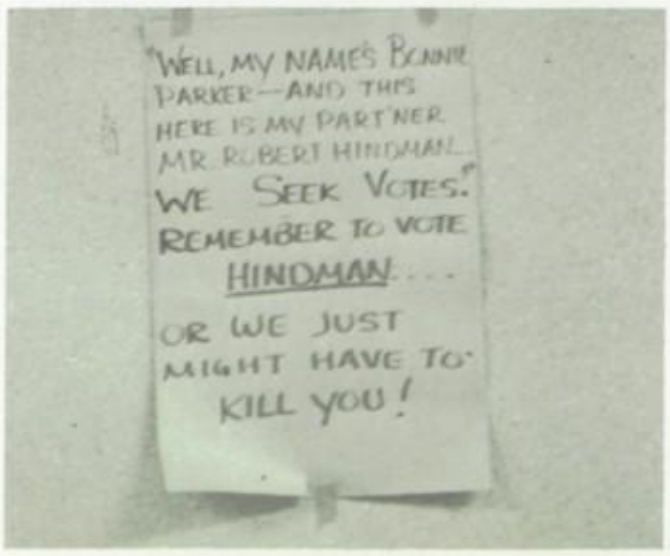
Scenes from the Speech Class UIL contest play, "She Stoops to Conquer," are enacted in the gymnatorium.

FHA assembly is a fashion show.

Frightened girls await their turn to try out for cheerleader.

Linda prepares owls for the Who's Who students and Wendy pins them on during the assembly.

Students receive ribbons as their poems were selected as 1st, 2nd and 3rd place winners in the National Poetry Society.
Freshman Calvin Cunnigan, Ann Smith, and Karen Crow;
Sophomore Mike Lindsey, Viki Pratt, and Patti Hollandsworth;
Junior Mike Goggans, Peggy Massey, and Robert Hindman;
Senior Mike Wright, Russell Scott, and Melissa Hallman.



"WELL, MY NAME'S BONNIE PARKER—AND THIS HERE IS MY PARTNER MR. ROBERT HINDMAN.
WE SEEK VOTES."
REMEMBER TO VOTE
HINDMAN...
OR WE JUST MIGHT HAVE TO KILL YOU!

Halls are gaily decorated with posters and candidates make speeches for offices of the Student Council.

Christmas Parade

Progress is the activity of today and the assurance of tomorrow.
Emerson

Majorettes try to tell Santa they are good.

Students enjoy working on floats.

Sheryl poses as friends look on.

The Wills Point High School Band lead the Christmas Parade.

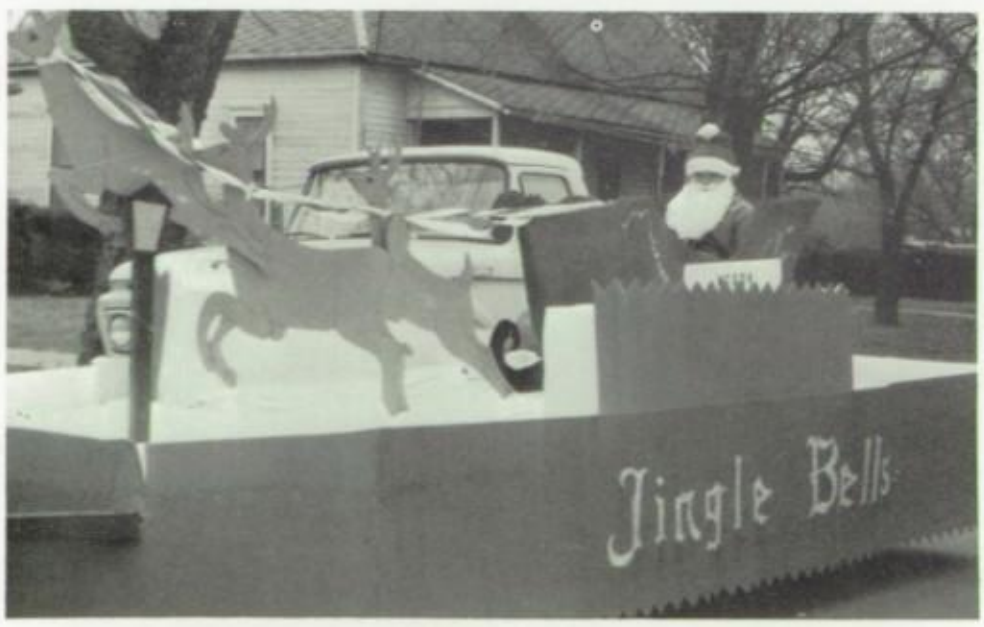
Third period study hall boys add delight to the parade as they ride on David Strawn's "Green Hornet."

Would you believe Santa's little helpers?

High school cheerleaders hold on as they enter the parade.

The Junior High Band displays their ability to perform as they march in the Christmas parade.

Junior High District Football Champs are ready for the parade.



Santa's on his way to the parade.

Junior High Cheerleaders line up for the parade.

Christmas Celebrations

Mrs. Eugene Kilmer's students enjoy refreshments at Christmas party.

Students enjoy the party in Mrs. B. D. Smith's room.

Room mothers help with traditional Christmas parties in elementary.

Mrs. Iola Robertson's class shares the excitement of their Christmas gifts.

Mrs. Felix Massey's students enjoy Christmas gifts.

Members of the cast of the Christmas play put on their make-up.

in the Schools

Robbie Anderson, Lucia LyBrand, and Marilyn Fuller sing carols as they participate in the Junior High Christmas program.

Edward Williams, James Cunigan, and Kenneth Jackson entertain with Christmas carols during the program.

Junior High girls lead Christmas carols as the student body joins in.

Each year students bring the traditional white gift. These are distributed as gifts of love.

Brenda Beach, Suzanne Hay, and Willis Gipson look on as students participate in the high school Christmas play.

Bonnie Rushing and Herschel LyBrand are in the "Christmas Miser."

Students Enjoy

Students prepare for the assembly which was presented that morning.

Girls await starting gun, as boys make plans for the Sadie Hawkins chase.

These are some of the results of the chase.

Karen Furrh gently holds her egg during the egg throwing contest.

Western Day

Some of the activities of the afternoon were a tug of war and the log sawing contest.

Sheriff Travis expects a lot of trouble.

"Bad" students are tried by Judge John Holt and placed in the jail house.

Wendy spoons up the spaghetti.

Mrs. Wilcoxson wins spaghetti-eating contest.

Everyone was pooped at the end of the day.

FHA Activities

Best dressed boy, Willis Gipson

Best dressed girl, Linda Sullivan

During FHA week several activities were held. On Monday students participated in Dress Up Day. On Friday the eighth grade girls were presented with a tea and program.

The biggest event of the year is the Mother-Daughter Tea with the installation of new officers and presentation of awards.

Runners Up in Best Dressed Contest: Michael Hodges, Brenda Beach, Pam Reid, Tom Castleberry

Third period girls help with the reception honoring Mrs. Riley.

FFA Activities

Bonnie Rushing, FFA Sweetheart, and Kenneth Bates show off Kenneth's first place ribbon won in the beef cows division.

FFA president, Buddy Sledge, presides over the annual Parent-Son Banquet. On Buddy's left are his parents and Jimmy Langford and his parents are on his right.

Greg Evans, on the left, was awarded the Showmanship trophy and Frankie Daugherty on the right, was awarded the Herdsman trophy at the FFA annual Students' Project Show.

A group of FFA boys entertained at the banquet. Tommy Seale (behind Randy), Randy Seale, Robert Bateman, and Buddy Sledge made up the combo.

Junior-Senior Banquet

David Strawn acts as Master of Ceremonies at the banquet.

Since Elvis couldn't make it Scotty Longacre substitutes and sings "Blue Hawaii."

Coach Carter chuckles as the banquet progresses.

Would you believe Hawaiian hula dancers?

Linda Cannefax and Ruth Rohus sing as Karen Conn plays the piano.

Ann Furrh and Jeanie James present awards at the banquet.

Junior-Senior Banquet

Suzanne greets guest with a lei.

You can still see his foot!

Mrs. Castle-berry lights the candles.

Mr. Pennington may get "most agreeable" next year.

Coach Carter: And I'm going to get six slices of ham, and four rolls and . . .

Boy, did I enjoy that!
